ATTACK ON AMERICA! UKRAINIAN ORTHODOX CHURCH OF THE USA COUNCIL OF BISHOPS

P. O. BOX 495, SOUTH BOUND BROOK, NJ 08880

On Tuesday, 11 September 2001 – the Feast of the Beheading of the Holy Prophet and Baptist John – thousands of lives in New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania were suddenly and without warning cut short. Countless thousands of families like Rachel of old, mourn their children who were lost in the violence of devastating terrorist attacks on the most important institutions of our United States of America.

The events of this day have changed not only the skyline of a major city and the nerve center of our armed forces, but have forever altered the lives of all of us who have long taken for granted the freedoms, which we enjoy, paying little more than lip service to God and the principles upon which our nation was founded.

As Orthodox Christians of Ukrainian heritage we are horrified at this crisis moment, but we call upon all citizens of this great nation to bear witness to the Biblical promise of peace that passes all understanding and to act responsibly in response. We detest and condemn the attack - along with those who led and sponsored it – upon our country, its people and its institutions.

At the same time we commend to the loving embrace of our Risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ the souls of those who perished. We beseech Him to receive them into His Heavenly Kingdom and to give comfort to those who mourn and for whom there may seem to be no immediate comfort.

We, the hierarchs of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA offer our prayers for all who have been touched by this terrorist attack and call upon all our beloved clergy and faithful to do the same on a daily basis. We call upon you to respond to the call of local hospitals to donate blood and give whatever is necessary to assist those who are tending the wounded. In this, the darkest hour of our American history, we call upon all to “let your light shine before mankind, so that others who witness your good works, might glorify your Father in Heaven”. Pray for the victims, pray for survivors and pray for peace and love.

We direct all clergy of our Holy Ukrainian Orthodox Church to:

- offer the attached prayer following the litany of fervent supplication of Divine Liturgy of Sunday, 16 September
- offer the Memorial Litany for the repose of the souls of all those murdered in this terrorist attack and
- offer a Moleben following Liturgy for the survivors and the family members of victims of this tragedy

May the Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God the Father and the Fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all during these difficult times.

In our Lord's All-encompassing Love,

+ CONSTANTINE, Metropolitan

+ ANTONY, Archbishop

+ VSEVOLOD, Archbishop

The goals and objective for each committee and commission were set during the course of the meeting thus giving each Chair a clear chart to follow over the course of the year. The finalized goals and objectives will be published in the next UOL Bulletin.

I promised last month to update you on the Metropolitan Council Meeting that I attended in July. Items of interest include:

I am pleased to report that there has been much progress in the programs being directed by our Consistory over the last year as a result of the successful appointments of Natalie Kapeluck, as Director of the Office of Youth Ministry, Fr. Deacon Ihor Mahlay, as Director of the Office of Missions and Christian Care, V. Reverend William Diakiw, Vice President of the Consistory and Director of the Office of Publications, Fr. Deacon Joseph Kreta, Director of the Office of Religious Education, and Dr. Stephen Sivulich, Director of the Office of Development, and all of their numerous accomplishments. We know all of these officers very well, as they are current and in most cases life-long members of the UOL. All of these officers have spent the last year outreaching to the parishes to improve the communications between the parishes and the Consistory. The programs that they have spearheaded have been successful to date and we're looking for more progress in the future.

In addition to our progress here in the US, we're seeing many positive signs regarding the reunification of the church in Ukraine, largely due to the support and facilitation of our Hierarchs. We rejoice in this news and look forward to more positive developments.

Upcoming activities include a conference on Ukrainian Orthodoxy and the Environment that is the works under the direction of Father John Haluszczak and Father Robert Popichak—plus all of the workshops and activities planned for the upcoming Sobor.

Please be reminded—we have a monastery to be developed in Vineland, New Jersey, a new mausoleum that was built within the foundation of our St. Andrew's Memorial Church in South Bound Brook and completed last Spring, and a new Historical/Education Complex on the brink of initiation. There are plenty of areas that the UOL can serve as a great resource for all of these efforts. I hope that our members will first and foremost come to the Sobor to support the progress that has been initiated and that needs to be continued. Secondly, I hope our member chapters will seek an opportunity to support and assist our Consistory in these projects through donations, member attendance or by volunteering to host or help in many of the efforts necessary to make these projects a success. If any of these topics interests you, please contact me for further information.

Until next month . . . I remain.

Yours in Christ's love,

Daria A. Pishko

JR. UOL PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

John Meschisen

Glory to Jesus Christ.

Greetings and Salutations!

I hope everyone is healthy and happy. September is usually the month that we JR's. Head back to school, however before we go back, the Jr. National Board held its first meeting in Palos Park, IL, on August 24-26.

We met early on Saturday morning for our official meeting. A few of the more major issues we discussed and/or did were: select area-chapters, pick our assignments, review the Jr. convention committee reports, discussed several prospective Jr. UOL chapters, and prepared for the Sobor.

Also, our dynamic duo of Corresponding Secretary, Anya Priestler, and Recording Secretary, Megan Beck, prepared a mailing for ELECTION REPORT FORMS. The forms should be completed and sent to Anya by October 15th. On another front, our Financial Secretary, Natalie Beck, will team-up with Palos Park's own Matt Most to create a new and exclusively only Jr. UOL webpage. This should be up and running before the New Year.

The rest of the weekend was spent shopping, playing beach football, watching low budget films and attending Divine Liturgy at Sts. Peter and Paul parish, Palos Park. Liturgy was followed by a scrumptious "Pancake Flip".

On behalf of the entire Jr. National Board, I would like to thank Sts. Peter and Paul parish for an unforgettable weekend, which I know I will not forget.

Until next month,

I will continue to remain, Through Christ,

Most Affectionately Yours,

John D. Meschisen

ATTACK ON AMERICA! A Prayer..

UKRAINIAN ORTHODOX CHURCH OF USA

The Church offers this prayer for the victims of the tragedy of September 11, 2001, as well as for our nation.

O Lord Through the prayers of our Holy Fathers, Jesus Christ our God, have mercy upon us.

Lord God, Lover of Mankind, bless our God-protected nation, the United States of America, and forgive those who hate and wrong us. Do good to those who do good and grant our brothers, sisters and all our people safety, health, salvation and eternal life. Visit the sick and heal them. Guide those in our armed forces; in our fire, police and rescue services; and in our government. Upon those who have asked us, unworthy though we are, to pray for them, have mercy. Remember our fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the Lord and grant them rest where the light of Your Face shines. Remember those who bear fruit and do good works and grant them their petitions for health, safety, salvation and eternal life.

Remember us, O Lord, your humble, sinful and unworthy servants and enlighten our minds with the light of Your Knowledge and guide us in the way of your Commandments, through the prayers of our Most-Pure Lady, the Birth-giver of God and Ever-Virgin Mary, and of all Your Saints, for You are blessed to the ages of ages. Amen.

THE NATIONAL FLAG OF UKRAINE

Elizabeth Mitchell, Staff Writer

The flag of Ukraine has not always been blue and yellow as we know it today (also referred to as azure blue and gold). Because Ukraine suffered a history of oppression, foreign governments in power ruled on the shape and the colors. The Ukrainian national flag has a history beginning with the Princely Era in the 13th century. There were many variations of flags and colors used in the historical periods beginning with the Hetman State and found in the Lviv Chronicle of the 17th century. Along with blue, often in combination with yellow, the favorite colors of the Kozak State crimson and red were used.

The heraldic conception of national colors that had been passed down from ancient times had been lost. Instead, blue was justified as being the color of the sky and yellow the color of wheat.

A controversy then arose between the advocates of the yellow/blue and those of the blue/yellow. A resolution on June 27, 1917 of the Ukrainian National Council stated that until the emblems were defined, the blue and yellow would be the colors of the Ukrainian National flag.

Following World War I, the Ukrainian National Rada on March 22, 1918 adopted the blue and yellow flag as the Ukrainian National State Flag. Finally, a resolution of the Ukrainian National Rada (in exile) of June 27, 1949 ruled that the state flag of the Ukrainian National Republic would consist of two equal stripes—blue on the top and yellow on the bottom.

"When Ukraine declared independence from the USSR on August 24, 1991, the MP's celebrated the event by carrying a huge blue and yellow flag through the hall of Parliament." (Ukrainian Weekly, 1996)

A proud moment for Ukrainians occurred in February, 1994 when our national flag was televised around the world proclaiming Oksana Baiul a gold medal winner in figure skating at the Winter Olympics held in Lillehammer, Norway.

As we celebrate the 10th anniversary of Ukraine's independence, let us remember those who gave their lives so that today the blue and yellow flies over a free and independent Ukraine.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

MISSIONS TRIP TO SOUTH AMERICA

Reflections by Mike Sally

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN MISSION CENTER (OCMC) BRAZIL MISSION TEAM

When we gathered at St. Basil's Academy in Garrison, NY, we all had individual expectations about the trip. We were told that the most of the time would be working on the construction of the seminary in the city of Curitiba in Southern Brazil. Hearing about mission trips to other countries, we supposed hearing about past missions experiences, would quell our fears about the forth-coming trip. I tried not to expect too much, or too little. I only knew that I wanted to be the best Orthodox Christian I could be in order to be a good example to those we would meet in Brazil.

However, we learned very early in the trip that even our most general expectations would not necessarily come true. We were told during our orientation at St. Basil's Academy that the construction of the seminary was ahead of schedule and that we would not be doing much work on it. That ruffled us a bit! Now, we asked, what will we do? One member of our group, Jimmy Nakos, who had been to Albania for a mission trip in the past, told us not to worry about what we would be doing. Our job was to go and do whatever Bishop Jeremiah would tell us to do because that is what the people and the church in Brazil need.

One question we were told to keep in mind while on this mission trip was: "What is God teaching us?" This question came up frequently, especially during the first week, when we traveling throughout Curitiba site seeing and touring the seminary. In answer to a question about our helping with the construction of the seminary, Bishop Jeremiah said: "No, no, no, the building will get finished, but you are here to enjoy Brazil and relax."

Well, what is God teaching me?, I asked. I wrote in my journal: "Patience, understanding, and possibly He is giving us a rest for everything we will have to do later in the trip." I didn't know at that time how right I was.

At this point, we perceived that there had to be more to the mission work "thing" than manual labor. The Bishop had a plan that needed to be followed in order for us to accomplish his plans for the mission team.

At the end of the first week, we met with the members of St. Michael's Ukrainian Orthodox Church in the small community of Palmital which is located about a five-hour drive in the rolling hills west of Curitiba. Since most of our mission team members were between the ages of 18 to 30, we were able to quickly make a special bond with the youth of the churches. In Palmital we played a game of soccer in a nearby field that was inhabited by a cow (that played defense for us), some chickens and a very large pig. Later that day we helped clean up the local cemetery by picking up garbage and pulling weeds.

But something seemed to be missing. Even though we had gotten our way. That is, we got our hands dirty pulling weeds and now we had pictures to show to those at home that our trip to Brazil was worth it. But we still felt that we needed to focus more on the long-term benefits of our presence here. While most of us were cleaning the cemetery, Zen Kozy, the wise man of our team, was speaking to the elders of the church about their lives and the lives of their fathers, brothers and cousins before them, reviving the Ukrainian language within their community and, I believe, having a much more lasting effect on the Brazilians. This was the example that we needed to follow. By the next week the weeds would grow back, but the words spoken by Zen will, I am confident, find their way to the very souls of the Brazilians.

RELIGION: QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

By Fr. John W. Harvey

Q. As long as I can remember, there have always been flowers on our altar. Holiday times like Christmas and Pascha, with banks of Easter lilies and poinsettias, it sometimes seemed that the Priest was in the middle of a jungle. Now we can only have flowers on pedestal stands BEHIND the altar. Don't take me for being combative, I can take change, but please give me the reasoning behind this, please.

A. Many of our churches had massive altars, some even with shelves piled up at the back. Let's face it, much of this comes from the hazy Greek Catholic roots in our past and does not properly express our theology. The altar is where the Liturgy takes place and the focus is supposed to be on the Eucharistic vessels that are there. All extraneous matter, which includes books, flowers or whatever is to be kept off this place where the consecration of the gifts takes place. The antimimension, Gospel Book, communion cloth and spoon and the hand cross as well as candles are usually found on the altar along with the tabernacle for the reserved sacrament for the sick.

Anything else besides what is actually used for the Liturgy amounts to clutter and takes attention away from the all important action taking place. Flowers on stands behind may embellish and point out a season, like Christmas, but they are not competing for attention as when they are on the altar itself.

Q. A young man recently asked me: "If I look at just a little bit of pornography on the Internet every day, do you think it will become a problem?"

A. The insidious working of pornography on a male mind can be devastating. The easy availability of such "stuff" on the Internet, and the relative privacy in which such "stuff" can be viewed is a trap that swallows the spiritually unwary. Curiosity, if fed with pornography, spurs on to more and an ever-increasing appetite quickly becomes established, often ending in obsessions. This little taste of forbidden fruits skews normal sexual interest and expectations in marriage. There are so many tricks the mind plays to justify such viewing that a good many people have so suppressed their consciences that they see nothing sinful in this. Deliberately stirring up lustful thoughts and encouraging erotic fantasies is playing into Satan's hand. The spurious idea that this is an educational tool is self-delusion that can be soul destroying.

If you are viewing such material more than once, you already have a definite problem.

ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS – 2001

The UOL Essay Contest attracted 209 entries from 22 parishes. Judges for the contest included: Donna LaCocca, River Forest, IL; Betty Gula, Princeton, NJ; and Steffie Tybor, Somerset, NJ.

ESSAY CONTEST WINNERS:

GRADE 5 – CHRISTINE WACHNOWSKY, Sts. Peter & Paul Church, Carnegie, PA

"I think Thanksgiving Day is a day to give thanks to the Lord for what He gave to us and what He has done for us. The pilgrims gave thanks for making it to Plymouth Rock, for making it through the long winter, and for having the Indians help in learning how to survive off the land.

We give thanks for having our families, friends, the world in which we live in, the food that we have to eat and God's love for us. That is why I think we celebrate Thanksgiving Day.

GRADE 5 – PATRICK SCANNELL – St. John's Church, Johnson City, NY.

"Thanksgiving Day is about being thankful for all of the blessings that God has given you. It also makes you realize how much God helped the Pilgrims by getting them to America safely, helping them make friends with the Indians, and helping them survive the winter. It is a day where God wants you to be with your family and spend time with them. On Thanksgiving, you should remember how much God has done for you."

GRADE 6 – JULIA NARY, St. Andrew's Church, Boston, MA.

"When I think of my favorite holiday, Thanksgiving always comes to mind. We all enjoy the juicy turkey and tasty stuffing, but deep down we all favor getting together with our friends and family, and sharing what we have been thankful for this past year.

Thanksgiving is a time where we all thank God for putting us on this earth and granting us a great life. We also thank Him for keeping us healthy and letting us have family and friends to accompany us. These reasons are the true meaning of Thanksgiving, and that is why we all enjoy it."

GRADE 6 – MARK MESCHISEN – St. Michael Church, Woonsocket, RI.

"I think Thanksgiving Day is about giving thanks to the Lord, our God, for all the blessings he gives us. I also think that everyday can be Thanksgiving Day. We should give thanks to the Lord everyday of the year, not just one day a year.

We also, don't have to wait for a special holiday to give thanks to the Lord. We should do it every day in our daily prayers. "Giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." (Ephesians 5:20)

GRADE 6 – OKSANA MAHLAY – St. Vladimir's Church, Parma, OH.

"What do you think of Thanksgiving Day is all about?"

Thanksgiving is a time for giving thanks to God. We follow the example set by the Pilgrims on that first Thanksgiving Day, when they gave thanks to God for all that they had gotten. We should give thanks to God for everything that we had received. Once a year to get together as a family, both religious and related family to thank God that we are together and for the blessings we received through the year."

GRADE 8 – TAISA PRIESTER – St. Andrew's Church, Boston, MA.

"Love each other," Jesus said. This seems so simple and easy, yet it can be one of the most difficult struggles of life. When Jesus said this, He did not mean love only those who love you. He meant love equally your family, your friends, and even your enemies—everyone means every human. It is not easy to love every one, love is complicated. However, life isn't easy and you must stretch and try to accomplish Jesus' words, no matter how hard they may be.

Love is never easy, but you must not give up. Love makes people happy, so by loving everyone, you add joy to everyone's lives. It is not easy to love those who lie, those who kill, those who steal, yet as Jesus said, we must "love each other."

YOUNG ADULTS CORNER

The Young Adults of the UOL have had a very high-octane summer! The YA's kicked off the summer with the Memorial Day Weekend at All Saints Camp. The 25 participants, during the service aspect of the weekend, were able to stain eight new bunk beds for the cabins, remove some super-sized shrubbery from the front of the Millennium Cultural Center and scrub down over 200 chairs for the coming summers events. His Beatitude Metropolitan Constantine visited with us once again as did the Spiritual Father for the weekend Fr. Myron Oryhon. His Beatitude and Fr. Myron went head-to-head in our second annual Iron Chef Cook-Off. Our Metropolitan took the safe route and stuck with his classic chili; while Fr. Myron took a daring turn by grilling a New York favorite—Speedies. The contest for the coveted golden spatula resulted in a tie! The participants also enjoyed lectures on the theme "Relationships in 2001 for Orthodox Young Adults". The weekend concluded with a high powered going away party for our Brazilian Seminarians Sandro Maldonado and Ivan Tchopko. We all danced the night away and reminisced about the last four years with our friends.

As July approached so did the YA Days at the UOL Convention. The YA's participated in an uproarious and amazingly cool Philly Phlash Photography Scavenger Hunt (which was very creatively formulated by Dave and Lisa Sembrot). Two teams raced across downtown Philadelphia – deciphering clues and taking pictures of the Historical Philly locations. Teams gained bonus points for how many teams' members were in a shot, creativity and use of colonial dressed city workers. The battle was fierce and only one point stood between the winning team of Kathy Bailly, Anna Mark, Alicia Oryhon and Keith Snyder and the runner up team (which will remain nameless to protect the innocent).

The Fun in the Sun at the UOL Convention did not end with the Scavenger Hunt. Many College Students participated in the First College Day on Saturday of the Convention. The students went rock climbing at the Philly Rock Gym. Much physical exertion took place and some believed they wouldn't make it to the banquet and ball. However, it was all-good in the end and a wonderful time was had by all at the B & B.
